

RACE BRIEFING

Participation in the Race Briefing is obligatory for all drivers. Non-appearance for the Race Briefing, non-compliance with the regulations as well as the instructions of the organiser may result in the driver being disqualified from any further participation in the event. Drivers must sign this form before actively participating in the event.

During the Race Briefing, the Race Organizer instructs the drivers on:

Organisation

- Announcement of Race Jury and any other officials
- Starting order and times, number of heats, etc.
- Race track facilities
- First aid and medical assistance

Regulations

- Technical inspection
- Fueling and weight control
- Horsing
- Timing system
- Stopping device
- General safety rules (alcohol and drugs, clothing, rules of behaviors etc.)
- Procedure in case a record is broken
- Procedure in case of a race accident
- Disqualification reasons
- Protest procedure

If not instructed otherwise the minimum requirements of the Technical Regulations and Sporting Code apply.

The drivers participate in the event at their own risk. They shall assume, in its entirety, any and all such liability as may accrue under both civil and criminal law for, likewise, any and all such occurrences of loss/damage as may be caused by themselves or, as the case may be, by the equipment used by them.

The drivers warrant that their models have been inspected and comply with Technical Regulations and confirm there are no defects that could infringe safety. The drivers also declare that they are aware of the regulations in force and will comply with them during training and races.

The drivers acknowledge that photographs, sound and film recordings may be produced in the course of the event. The drivers grant FEMA and the Race Organizer full rights to use the images/recordings, and any reproductions or adaptations. This might include (but is not limited to), the right to use them in printed and online publicity, social media or press releases.

Note: If needed, please use multiple copies of following page and number them consecutively.

Event	Date	Page

IMPORTANT: I hereby confirm that I have personally participated in the Race Briefing or that I have been briefed separately about its contents by the Race Organizer/my Team Captain. I understand and accept the instructions and rules mentioned therein.

Printed name	Signature